

A Letter from Your Horse

When you are tense; let me teach you to relax.
When you are short tempered; let me teach you to be patient.
When you are short sighted; let me teach you to see.
When you are quick to react; let me teach you to slow down.
When you are angry; let me teach you to be serene.
When you feel superior; let me teach you to be respectful.
When you are self absorbed; let me teach you to think of greater things.
When you are arrogant; let me teach you humility.
When you are lonely; let me be your companion.
When you are tired; let me carry the load.
When you need to learn; let me teach you.

After all, I am your horse

And now... the REAL DEAL:

When you are tense; let me teach you that there are lions in them thar woods and we need to leave NOW!
When you are short tempered; let me teach you to slog around the pasture for an hour before you can catch me.
When you are short sighted; let me teach you to figure out where, exactly, in the 40 acres I am hiding.
When you are quick to react; let me teach you that herbivores kick much faster and harder than omnivores.
When you are angry; let me teach you how well I can stand on my hind feet because I don't feel like cantering on my right lead today.
When you are worried; let me entertain you with my mystery lameness.
When you feel superior; let me teach you that, mostly, you are the maid service.
When you are self absorbed; let me teach you to PAY ATTENTION. Remember, I told you about those lions in them thar woods?
When you are arrogant; let me teach you what 1200 lbs of "YAHOO LETS GO!" can do when suitably inspired.
When you are lonely; let me be your companion. Lets do lunch. Also, breakfast, and dinner.
When you are tired; don't forget the 600 lbs of grain that needs to be unloaded.
When you are feeling financially secure; let me teach you the meaning of 'Veterinary Services'.
When you want to learn; hang around, I'll learn ya...

*Sincerely,
Your Horse*
